

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Rico Sciaky, Instructor

CENTRAL COUNTY OCCUPATIONAL CENTER

760 Hillside Avenue, San Jose 95136 - 408/723-6400

TRAINING STUDENTS FOR ENTRY-LEVEL POSITIONS SUCH AS:

- Community Service Officer
- Police Officer
- Sheriff's Deputy
- Corrections Officer
- Public Safety Dispatcher
- Plus a wide variety of sworn and non-sworn investigative and security positions

BENEFITS OF THIS CLASS:

- Develop skills that will better prepare you for a career in the public and private investigative sector
- 30 high school credits earned per year
- Equivalency credits in English, math, or science may be available
- Extensive preparation for a full-time police academy

IN THIS CLASS, STUDENTS LEARN:

- Understand the criminal justice system from detection and arrest to trial, conviction, and rehabilitation methods
- Investigate crimes and traffic accidents
- Identify evidence and learn how to properly collect clues at crime scenes
- Decision-making abilities in a variety of scenarios and by utilizing a state of the art FATS machine (Fire Arms Training System)

UPON SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF CLASS, STUDENTS RECEIVE:

- Certificate of Competency
- Job skills that will be beneficial for a lifetime
- 10 College units – West Valley College with a B or better

JOB MARKET INFORMATION:

In the San Francisco Bay Area, the average starting salary for an entry-level police officer is approximately $50,000 - $60,000 a year, plus generous benefits.

The opportunity for a career in law enforcement has never been greater. Many local and state agencies are looking for qualified individuals to fill vacancies.

There are hundreds of openings in the Bay Area and throughout the State of California. The need for qualified personnel is even greater in the private sector.

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR:

Rico Sciaky has over 18 years of experience as a Police Officer, Police Supervisor, and Deputy Sheriff.

Mr. Sciaky also has experience as a Public Safety Dispatcher, Detective, Field Training Officer, and Background Investigator.

He is currently a Reserve Sheriff's Deputy with the County of San Mateo.

School-to-Career Pathway

